Jaguar Pantomime was first established in 1947 and became a registered charity in 1991.

The organisation produces a traditional pantomime every year which is performed in February half term week.

The company are committed to develop and train in the dramatic arts welcoming members of the community from all ages and background to join in the performance or production side.

The company consists of freelance actors and musicians who have trained within specialist provisions and is made up of voluntary members of the community in running the company and producing of the original annual productions.

Offers opportunities for underprivileged communities to partake in theatre entertainment.
It is a none profit organisation- exists for educational or charitable reasons. Money earned is retrained to the organisation and used for its own expenses, operations and programs.

- Members pay an annual membership fee and weekly subs for the running costs.

Aims to make theatre accessible to everyone. Their production is performed at Sutton Town Hall is ideal for access for all disabilities and all the revenue received from ticket sales helps to fund the current and future performances.
Audience:
There traditional pantomimes are targeted to children and adults who have varying multiple disabilities mentally or physically or socially deprived this opportunity is for them to experience the magic of pantomime as our special guests.

Invited audiences- and subsidised tickets:
• Children's Homes
• Children's Organisations
• Single Parent Families
• Non-wage earning families
• Care Associations for the Elderly and Young People
• Sheltered Homes
• Disadvantaged Groups
• Senior Citizens Groups
• Retirement Clubs
• Homes for the Disabled
• Nursing Homes
How are they link within the Arts the Arts context UK?
• Robin Simpson of Voluntary arts

• “Amateur or voluntary arts are massive in the UK. In 2008, research by the department for culture, media, and sport found that there were about 49,000 amateur arts group in England, with 9.4 million people regularly taking part. The income generated through ticket sales, subscriptions, sponsorship, and fundraising amounted to about £543m a year.”
Chairman of the organisation:
He is the leader of the entire organisation. He is involved with the strategic planning of events and ensure that all activities are in accordance with the organisations mission. He is the primary figure for greeting keynote speakers, sponsors and community figures. Head of networking, social interactions, and navigating through community relations.

The Role – represent and promote the club
- Ensures the group communicates with members clearly and effectively acts as a source of information for the club. Ensure the smooth running of the club.
- Act as a spokesperson for the club.
- Attend all committee meetings,

Explore new ways of approaching problems in conjunction with the members, and help the group learn from their experiences. Evaluate the effectiveness of the group on an ongoing basis so that it moves forward. Educate other members to set goals and evaluate events the group has staged to see how far the goals are being met.

Jointly responsible with the Treasurer, for the society's finances. Draw up agendas for meeting in conjunction with the Club Secretary. Organises activities for the organisation.
Jaguar Pantomime

Jaguar Charity Pantomime Society shared Tamworth Arts & Events’ event — feeling excited
April 18 at 7:10am

Jaguar Charity Pantomime Society will be joining in the St George’s day celebrations at Tamworth Castle Come along say hello & enjoy a fun family day out https://www.facebook.com/events/472025906330302/

St Georges Day Extravaganza 2016
Sat 10 AM - Tamworth Castle and Grounds - Ta...
5,450 people interested 732 people going
My role and tasks with in the organisation?

Front of house:
My job function was to cater for the needs, well being and safety of the theatre audience.

- Welcome costumes as they arrived to the theatre.
- Checking tickets on the door.
- Ushering costumers to their seats, and ensuring people with disabilities had all the access they needed.
- Answering quires from the public.
- Ensuring the venue was tidy and clean.
- Selling programs.
Box office

- Receptionist duties at the venue.
- Emailing/ documentation/ phone calls
- Selling programs
- Cash up and the end of the show ensuring all transactions are recorded and accurate.
Next year it could be you!

Have you or your children expressed an interest in performing? Then why not join us? The society is open to everyone, no matter your abilities, ethnicity or background.

- As long as your aged 6+
- Can make rehearsal on a Thursday night in the Birmingham area.
- Or even just want to take part behind the scenes (backstage, front of house, fundraising etc)

Come along and find out what being involved in the society is all about!

All you need is enthusiasm!

To find out about our auditions please like our Facebook page:

Jaguar Charity Panto

Speak to a member of the society
Email: Katie.jaguarpanto@yahoo.co.uk

A big thank you to Sutton Town Hall

Jaguar Charity Pantomime Society
Registered Charity no. 1003991

Dates of show 2016
7pm Monday 15th February
7pm Tuesday 16th February
7pm Wednesday 17th February
7pm Thursday 18th February
7pm Friday 19th February
2pm Saturday 20th February
7pm Saturday 20th February
2pm Sunday 21st February

Address of venue
Sutton Town Hall,
Upper Clifton Road,
Sutton Coldfield,
B73 6AD

Prices
Adult £6.50
Child/OAP £4.50
Family 2+2 £20.00

Contact Details
0845 259 0340
jaguarpanto@yahoo.co.uk
Similar Organisations

Interchurch Players

Corvus Amateur Drama Society (CADS)

ESSENTIAL Productions

FDS
Skills within a workplace:

- Confidence
- Clear Communication Skills
- Ability to Use "Positive Language"
- Patience
- Knowledge of the Product
- Attentiveness
- Time Management Skills
CONTACTS INFORMATION:

EMAIL: Jaguarpanto@yahoo.co.uk

TELEPHONE: 07929919195

MOBILE: 07929919195

WEBSITE:
http://www.jaguarcharitypanto.co.uk/